Press Release

On 29 April 2016, at 11:20am officers from the Northwest Regional Police Department were dispatched to the Red Rose Motel, 2346 South Market Street, Mount Joy Township, for a report of a subject threatening to harm himself. Responding officers arrived and made contact with Robert Bovell (W/M 56 yoa) from Elizabethtown. Robert displayed a pistol, pointing it to his head and was threatening to harm himself. Robert was outside his room walking around the court yard area of the motel property. After a two (2) hour stand-off, Officer Richard Regel from Elizabethtown Borough Police Department and Officer Randy Aument from Northwest Regional Police Department negotiated with Robert and eventually convinced him to put down the weapon. After putting down the weapon Robert was taken into custody and transported to Lancaster General Hospital for an evaluation. The following agencies assisted the Northwest Regional Police Department; Elizabethtown Borough Police Department, Mount Joy Borough Police Department, Susquehanna Regional Police Department, East Earl
